Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Call of the World: Or, Every Man s Supreme Opportunity The four questions which the author has most frequently heard in discussing world problems with men are the following: What progress is the missionary enterprise making? How much remains to be done? What is America s share of world responsibility? How can men relate themselves in a practical way to the spread of Christianity throughout the world? It is to give a brief answer to these four fundamental questions that the following pages have been prepared for use in Missionary Discussion Groups, Men s Bible Classes, Brotherhoods, Missionary Committees, and groups of Sunday School Officers and Teachers. It is also confidently expected that many men who cannot meet to discuss these problems in any of the groups mentioned will read and study the book in private. In preparing the manuscript the author has had in mind a large number of men who are now or should become public advocates of missions. The book presents information which they may use in addresses. Many of the facts given have been taken from the Report of the Edinburgh World Missionary Conference, The World Atlas of Christian Missions, The Statesman s Year Book, 1912, The Decisive Hour of Christian Missions, by John R. Mott, and The Unoccupied Mission Fields of Africa and Asia, by S. M. Zwemer. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
