We cannot hire labourers, and our neighbors will not assist us unless we treat them with strong drink. it is nearly certain that no man in a christian country ever said this without slandering his neighbors. We know in deed, that the poor Indian on whom the light of the Gospel has never shone-----at the moment when that hell which he carries in his bosom, is set on flame with whiskey, would shoot you if you would. not give him more: but when sober a refusal would neither endanger your life nor property. And do you believe that your neighbors are so much worse than savage, that even when you pay them an equivalent for their labour, they will not assist you unless you feed them with stimulating drink No. The fact that you continue to live in hear of as so dangerous. , such a neighborhood shows that you do not believe it. Facts in your. own neighborhood, and others, show that it is incredible. The history of all fair attempts to banish ardent spirits has been substantially the same. At first there is considerable excitement. Satan comes down with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short. --- intemperate lovers of drink will be roused. They will threaten with desertion. They will try to sting you with hard names----I I with flings at hypocrisy, and preciseness, and stinginess. But the 15 moment they discover that you are not to be intimidated the difficult...
