Read before the U. S. Catholic Historical Society, New York, by Rev. A. A. Lambing, May 24, 1886. The discovery, exploration and first settlement of the Western World presents one of the most interesting and varied pictures to be found anywhere in the pages of history. The ambition of explorers, the daring of adventures, the avarice of speculators, the jealousy of powers and the zeal of millionaires combine to form a panamora without parallel in the annals of the world. The pen of romance could not impart a more striking and varied coloring. Spain, Portugal, England, Holland, and France, were there penetrating into the deepest recesses, mountain, forest and plain, seeking with insatiable thirst whatever could excite cupidity, from the soul of a savage to the skin of a beaver. But the methods of exploration and...
