I ve done it, my friends and family managed it too. However it s not as easy as some may claim. Internet business is just like every other business. It takes time to craft your skills, to find right model, and turn opportunity into profit. In this book I will share with you some reputable websites that will pay you for your work. While I was selecting websites for this publication, I ve tried to mention variety companies that require different skills. I hope that some of them will fit your skills and help you to start your business venture. This is not Get Rich Quick or similar type of book.
