Two large health programs - TRICARE and Medicare - influenced the Background design and operation of the Medicare subvention demonstration. The military health system has three missions: (1) maintaining the health TRICARE of active-duty service personnel, (2) medically supporting military operations, and (3) providing care to the dependents of active-duty personnel, retirees and their families, and survivors. In fiscal year 1999, DODs annual appropriations included about 16 billion for health care, of which over 1 billion funded the care of seniors. In the mid-1990s, DOD implemented the TRICARE framework for military health care in response to rapidly rising costs and beneficiary concerns about access to military care. Its goals were to improve beneficiary access and quality while containing costs. TRICARE offers health care coverage to approximately 6. 6 million active-duty military personnel, retirees, dependents, and survivors under age 65. These beneficiaries have three main options: TRICARE Prime, a managed care option; TRICARE Extra, a preferred provider option; and TRICARE Standard, a fee-for-service option. A new option, TRICARE Plus, allows beneficiaries to enroll with...
