The Synopsis - presenting briefly, and progressively, and unmistakably, all the principles of the Elementary, or Corresponding, Style of Standard Phonography, the Best and General system of Shorthand writing. This part corresponds nearly to the coarse-print portion of the Corresponding-Style part of the Author s Hand-Book of Standard Phonography, a complete text-book of the entire System. 2. The Correspondent s List comprising an alphabetical list of Word-Signs, Contractions, Phrase-Signs, Prefixes, and Affixes of the Corresponding Style. 3. Reading Exercises illustrating and applying the principles of each section of the Synopsis; concluded with several pages of connected reading matter, with an interlinear translation - which is a great advantage to the student. To adapt this work to the most extended use as a class-book, the pronouncing-style print of the text of preceding editions has been replaced by the common orthography. To insure the utmost accuracy and clearness of illustration, the exercises and lists in this work have been produced by the Author s Stereography, which seems better adapted than any other process for the production of phonographic pages. It is the wish of the Author that this volume may contribute much to the diffusion of a beautiful and highly useful Art, to the improvement and popularization of which he has devoted many and the best years of his life. Methods of Study. There are...
