By Wells, Jan; Reid, Janine

Pembroke Publishers, 2004. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service!

Summary: This comprehensive handbook shows teachers how to build a writing foundation with effective lessons that are the key to powerful writing workshops. These practical lessons explore the main elements of writing, with explicit strategies for teaching the major styles: informational writing, poetry and personal writing, and narrative. The lessons form "metacognitive anchors" that build an understanding of the steps to powerful writing. Teachers will also find more than 30 effective tools that are ready to copy and use -- writing checklists, rubrics for assessment, graphic organizers, note-taking grids, semantic maps, tips for proofing, and much more.
